PREFACE

It is a common knowledge that English has become the language of international communication. It is this is why that the new language policy of Turkmenistan elaborated in the years of its Independence made English as one of the three priority languages (along with Turkmen, Russian and English) for our country.

Over the years of Independence English language teaching in Turkmenistan has been widely encouraged and achievements of teachers of English in Turkmenistan are really remarkable. Their experience in applying in EFL teaching in Turkmenistan the advanced methods is of crucial importance for Turkmenistan of today. The Pedagogical School named after A. Kekilov, where English, along with Turkmen and Russian, is a medium of instruction, is also contributing to some extent to English language learning in Turkmenistan. Thanks to the policy of Conception of Teaching English Language pursued by the President of Turkmenistan. To answer the traditional questions "Where we are?" and "What next?" in the field of EFL teaching there has been held a nation-wide workshop on "The methodology of English language teaching in Turkmenistan."

This book was prepared by qualified English teachers due to the "Syllabus for the Pedagogical schools" approved by the Ministry of Education of Turkmenistan.

The purpose of this book is to guide learners of English in effective and enjoyable ways of improving their language ability. There are many pages of information and advice about language learning, as well as hundreds of exercises in all aspects of English. We hope that this guide book will be very efficient material for Pedagogical School learners.

Theme-2-3*Songs and poems about family, numbersDaddy, I Love You*

Daddy, I love you
For all that you do.

I'll kiss you and hug you
'Cause you love me, too.

You feed me and need me
To teach you to play.

So smile 'cause I love you
On this Father's Day.

My mother is very pretty,
She's also very witty.

My mother's very tall
And I am very small.
She's busy like a bee
She takes care of me.
She's rich and merry
Cause she has ME!

In my Plane

Chocks away!
In my plane I loop and dive and I make numbers too
I'm going to count from one to five
Now see what I can do
Straight down in a line
And then one looks fine
Around and down, then straight
And two is looking great

Two bends, follow me
 Now there is a three
 Three lines make a four
 Down, across and down you draw
 Down, around, but don't stop
 Five needs a line on top
 In my plane I loop and dive and I make numbers too
 I'm going to count from six to ten
 Now see what I can do
 Dive down, come back round
 That's a six you have found
 Seven starts straight along
 Then go down, you're not wrong
 Start eight at the top
 Make two circles then you stop
 One circle and a line
 And then we have a nine
 Make a one and then
 Add a circle to make ten
 In my plane I loop and dive and I make numbers too
 Now you can write them for yourself
 Just see what you can do!

NUMERS

Tips

For numbers in the hundreds, the British usually say "and" but the Americans usually do not say "and":

British English

120 = one hundred and twenty

American English

120 = one hundred twenty

Note that in English, we usually separate the digits of numbers over 999 with a comma (.). We count 3 digits from the right and insert a comma, like this:

1 , 0 0 0 one thousand

1 , 0 0 0 , 0 0 0 one million

1 2 , 7 5 0 , 2 0 0 twelve million, seven hundred and fifty thousand, two hundred

We use a point (.) to indicate a decimal number, or to separate dollars from cents, pounds from pennies and so on. Here are some examples:

0 . 1 = one tenth or 1/10

1 . 0 = one

1 , 0 0 0 = one thousand

1 , 5 0 0 . 7 5 = one thousand five hundred and three quarters

$ 1 . 5 0 = one dollar and fifty cents

$ 7 0 0 . 0 0 = seven hundred dollars

£ 3 , 5 0 0 . 0 1 = three thousand five hundred pounds and one penny

Tips

Be careful with commas and points. Some languages use them in the opposite way!

Theme-8

What do we wear

What do we wear in winter?

Winter is a nice season in Turkmenistan. Usually it is not cold, but sometimes it snows. When it snows and the weather is cold we wear our winter clothes. Boys usually put on their warm coats, caps, scarves and boots. Girls also wear warm coats, scarves and boots when it's cold. We like to play with snow during winter holidays. We put on our mittens and make a snowman out in the yard. Sometimes we also make a snowball. We also ski and sledge. It is really fun.

We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo
 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo, and a lion too
 We're going to the zoo
 The monkeys sing and climb
 They know it's feeding time
 The polar bears and seals
 Enjoy their fishy meals
 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo
 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo, and a lion too

We're going to the zoo
 The snakes all slide along
 The skunk just makes a pong
 The tiger gives a roar
 He wants to eat some more
 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo
 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo, and a lion too
 We're going to the zoo
 The penguins need to hide
 It's much too hot outside

 We're going to the zoo to see a kangaroo, and a lion too
 We're going to the zoo

Animal House

There's a kangaroo in my kitchen
 There's a hippo in my hall
 There's a dinosaur in my dining room
 A hundred metres tall!
 My house is full of animals
 I don't know what to do
 I think I'm going crazy -
 I'm living in a zoo!
 There's a bison in my bathroom
 There's a beetle in my bed
 There's a tortoise in my toilet
 With a hamster on his head!
 My house is full of animals
 I don't know what to do
 I think I'm going crazy -
 I'm living in a zoo!
 There's a gopher in my garden
 There's a tiger in my tree
 There's a lion in my living room

He's watching my TV!
 My house is full of animals
 I don't know what to do

Jungle Rhyme

Monkeys can jump and climb trees
 Giraffes are tall and they eat leaves

Parrots are colourful and they can fly
 Elephants can't but would love to try.

Turtles are green and they can swim
 Cheetahs can run and they always win

Zebras look like horses but they are black and white
 Hippos are big and snore at night.

There Were Froggies

There were froggies by the lake,
 They were thinking what to make.
 They all swam off until there was one
 Saying loudly: It's no more fun!

From a Window In My House

From a window in my house,
I could see a little mouse.
Was she running? Was she jumping?
Was she laughing, what about?

---

Five Little Piggies

"It's time for my piggies to go to bed."
The great big mother piggy said.
"So I will count them first to see
If all my piggies came back to me.
One little piggy, two little piggies, three little piggies
dear
Four little piggies, five little piggies
Yes, they're all here!"

---

Hen, Hen, Count To Ten

Hen, hen, count to ten;
Goat, goat, get your coat;
Pig, pig, dance a jig.
Mouse, mouse, build a house;
Chick, chick, make it quick;
Cat, cat, find your hat.
Bear, bear, go upstairs,
Mite, mite, say good night;
Sheep, sheep, go to sleep.

An Elephant Goes Like This And That

An elephant goes like this and that:
He's terribly big and he's terribly fat.
He has no fingers, and he has no toes,
But goodness gracious, what a nose!

---

The Zoo

At the zoo we saw a bear
He had long, dark fuzzy hair

We saw a lion in a cage.
He was in an awful rage.

We saw the big, long-necked giraffe,
And the silly monkeys made us laugh

But my favorite animal at the zoo
Is the elephant--how about you?

---

This Little Piggy.

This little piggy went to market,
This little piggy stayed at home.
This little piggy had roast beef
And this little piggy had none.
This little piggy went wee, wee, wee,
All the way home.

Good Habits

Poem by Hira Akhtar

Get up early in the morning
 For being fit and healthy its a warning

Saying all the prayers is the way
 To get mental and spiritual refreshment all the day

Clean your hands and clean your mouth
 Germs'll be killed there is no doubt

Eat healthy and eat slowly
 Stomache'll never get out of order, can say it surely

Study at study time and play at play time
 This will make your future shine

Never be loud and obey your elders
 Will get success in life this service who renders

Love your youngers and give them care
 Otherwise from you they will scare

Keeping the company of good people
 Will make your personality graceful

Say 'Good night' and go to bed early
 So that you may get up to recite Quran Holy

Good HabitsSong - Lyrics*

Brush, brush, brush your teeth,

The World's Favorite Fruit (Tomatoes)
Food Song Lyrics and Sound Clip
Sam Jones

Lyrics:

(to the tune of "La Bamba")

Did you know that a tomato is a fruit, not a veggie
Did you know that a tomato is a fruit

*It's not a veggie
 We put them in a sandwich or sometimes in a salad
 Let's eat more tomatoes
 That big red fruit
 Tomato, tomato*

*Did you know that a tomato is the world's favorite fruit
 Lots of people love tomatoes
 And that's the truth
 Tomato, tomato*

*We eat them in salsa and sauces and ketchup
 Did you know that a tomato is the world's favorite fruit*

*Did you know that a tomato is a kind of berry
 Four groups of tomatoes
 Beefsteak and Slicing and Plum and Cherry
 We eat them in salsa and sauces and ketchup
 Did you know that a tomato is the world's favorite fruit
 The world's favorite fruit
 The world's favorite fruit
 Ahh, ahh, ahh, ahh
 Tomato, tomato*

 Seated on the ground.
 (then try the following) We are string beans green and fine.....growing on a vine.
 We are onions round and white....we make soup taste right.
 We are carrots, orange and long...help us sing the song.
 We are cabbage green or red.....see our funny head.
 We are corn stalks tall and straight...don't we just taste great!*

The Vegetable Song

(Tune: "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star")

*Carrots, Peas, and Broccoli,
 Vegetables are good for me.
 For my snack and in my lunch,
 Veggie sticks are great to munch.
 Carrots, Peas, and Broccoli,
 Vegetables are good for me.*

Theme-14*Little Red Riding Hood.

Little Red Riding Hood lived in a wood with her mother. One day Little Red Riding Hood went to see her Granny.

On her way Little Red Riding Hood met a wolf.

-“Hello”-said the wolf. -“Where are you going?”

-“I’m going to see my grandmother. She lives in a house behind those trees.”

The wolf ran to Granny’s house, and ate Granny up. He got into Granny’s bed.

A little later, Little Red Riding Hood reached the house. She looked at the wolf.

-“Granny, what big eyes you have!”

-“All the better to see you with!”- said the wolf.

-“Granny, what big ears you have!”

-“All the better to hear you with!”- said the wolf.

-“Granny, what a big nose you have!”

-“All the better to smell you with!”- said the wolf.

-“Granny, what big teeth you have!”

-“All the better to eat you with!”- shouted the wolf.

A woodcutter was in the wood. He heard a long scream, and ran to the house.

The woodcutter hit the wolf over the head. The wolf opened his mouth wide and shouted-and Granny jumped out.

The wolf ran away, and Little Red Riding Hood never saw the wolf again.

Theme-15

The cat and the mouse.

Cat: - Little Mouse, little Mouse,
Where is your house?

Mouse: - Little Cat, little Cat,
I have no flat.
I am a poor mouse,
I have no house.

Cat: - Little Mouse, little Mouse,
Come into my house.

Mouse: - Little Cat, little Cat,
I cannot do that.
You want to eat me.

Stay yet, my friends, a moment stay—
Stay till the good old year,
So long companion of our way,
Shakes hands, and leaves us here.
Oh stay, oh stay,
One little hour, and then away.

The year, whose hopes were high and strong,
Has now no hopes to wake;
Yet one hour more of jest and song
For his familiar sake.
Oh stay, oh stay,

One mirthful hour, and then away.

The kindly year, his liberal hands
 Have lavished all his store.
 And shall we turn from where he stands,
 Because he gives no more?
 Oh stay, oh stay,
 One grateful hour, and then away.

Days brightly came and calmly went,
 While yet he was our guest;
 How cheerfully the week was spent!
 How sweet the seventh day's rest!
 Oh stay, oh stay,
 One golden hour, and then away.

Dear friends were with us, some who sleep
 Beneath the coffin-lid:
 What pleasant memories we keep
 Of all they said and did!
 Oh stay, oh stay,
 One tender hour, and then away.

Even while we sing, he smiles his last,
 And leaves our sphere behind.
 The good old year is with the past;
 Oh be the new as kind!
 Oh stay, oh stay,
 One parting strain, and then away.

Merrily!
Merrily! Round the New

“Snowman”

Come to the garden
And play in the snow.
Make a white snowman.
And help him to grow!

-What a nice snowman!
The children will say.
-What a fine game
For a cold winter day.

I saw three ships come sailing by,
Come sailing by, come sailing by,

I saw three ships come sailing by,
On New-Year's day in the morning.

And what was in the ships all three,
The ships all three, the ships all three?
And what was in the ships all three
On New-Year's day in the morning?

Three pretty girls were in all three
Were in all three, were in all three,
Three pretty girls were in all three,
On New-Year's day in the morning.

One could whistle, and one could sing,
And one could play on the violin;
The joy there was at my wedding,
On New-Year's day in the morning.

I saw three ships come sailing by,
Come sailing by, come sailing by,
I saw three ships come sailing by,

My grandfather's clock, a clock text. What does the clock say. learn the poems and songs.

My Grandfather's Clock

My grandfather's clock was too large for the shelf
 So it stood ninety years on the floor
 It was taller by half than the old man himself
 Though it weighed not a pennyweight more

It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born
 And was always his treasure and pride
 But it stopped, short never to go again
 When the old man died

Ninety years without slumbering
 His life seconds numbering
 It stopped, short never to go again
 When the old man died

My grandfather said that of those he could hire
 Not a servant so faithful he found
 For it wasted no time and had but one desire
 At the close of each week to be wound

And it kept in its place, not a frown upon its face
 And its hands never hung by its side
 But it stopped short, never to go again
 When the old man died

Clocks

The lights go out and I can't be saved
 Tides that I tried to swim against
 Have brought me down upon my knees
 Oh I beg, I beg and plead, singing

Come out of the things unsaid
 Shoot an apple off my head and a
 Trouble that can't be named
 A tiger's waiting to be tamed, singing

You are, you are

Confusion that never stops
 The closing walls and the ticking clocks gonna
 Come back and take you home
 I could not stop, that you now know, singing

Come out upon my seas
 Cursed missed opportunities am I
 A part of the cure
 Or am I part of the disease, singing

You are, you are
 You are, you are
 You are,...

Clocks

Poem by Edwina Reizer

I hate the tick of a clock each day.
 It's ticking all my time away.
 Its hands are turning much too fast making my life unable to last.

If I had my way clocks would be gone.
 Then my life could go on and on.
 I'm not in tune with any clock.
 All they do is tick and tock.

I don't ever look at a clock anymore
 'cause when I do it's 4: 44.

Saying all the prayers is the way
To get mental and spiritual refreshment all the day

Clean your hands and clean your mouth
Germs'll be killed there is no doubt

Eat healthy and eat slowly
Stomache'll never get out of order, can say it surely

Study at study time and play at play time
This will make your future shine

Never be loud and obey your elders
Will get success in life this service who renders

Love your youngers and give them care
Otherwise from you they will scare

Keeping the company of good people
Will make your personality graceful

Say 'Good night' and go to bed early
So that you may get up to recite Quran Holy

Theme-5*The Goose with the Golden Eggs

Once upon a time, a man and his wife had the good fortune to have a goose which laid a golden egg every day. Lucky though they were, they soon began to think they were not getting rich fast enough.

They imagined that if the bird is able to lay golden eggs, its insides must be made of gold. And they thought that if they could get all that precious metal at once, they would get mighty rich very soon. So the man and his wife decided to kill the bird.

However, upon cutting the goose open, they were shocked to find that its innards were like that of any other goose!

MORAL: THINK BEFORE YOU ACT

More about the story

Kill not the goose that lays golden eggs is a popular proverb in English that is rooted in this story.

When we use this proverb, we mean that anyone who feels entitled to, and tries to get more than he is already receiving, is most likely to get nothing at all in the future.

Young Johnny had a very kind and generous uncle. Every time Johnny visited him with his parents, he was given five cents. One day, Johnny thought of buying a bike. The next time he met his uncle, he asked him for 50 dollars. "50 dollars?" exclaimed his uncle. "That is a lot of money!"

"Well, you can afford it, and I want to buy a bike," said Johnny. "You don't have any children, so you should have a lot of money."

Johnny's uncle was very angry. He did not like Johnny's attitude.

Johnny did not get 50 dollars. He did not get his five cents also any more.

He had killed the goose that laid golden eggs. If he had been wiser, he would have at least got his five cents.

Sometimes, we are not content with what we have, and wish for more. Such discontentment always results in unhappiness, and regret.

A Fox and a Crane.

Once upon a time, a Fox and a Crane were friends. One day the Fox said to the Crane, “Come to my place, my friend. You’ll see how I live and receive guests.”

So the Crane went to the friend’s place. The Fox prepared a very tasty dinner. The dinner was brought in a big tabok.

“Come on, go ahead, my dear friend. It’s very delicious. Eat,” said the Fox.

The Crane tried to eat with his long big beak from the flat tabok, but his beak only made noise, “Tik-tik”.

The Fox licked the whole meal up with his tongue and said, “Dear Crane, don’t be offended, but I have nothing more to offer you”.

“Thank you, dear friend, but don’t forget to come to my place and have dinner with me. I am going to cook a tasty dinner.” said the Crane.”

The next day the fox came to the Crane’s place. The Crane prepared very tasty dinner. He poured the dinner in a jar and began to eat with his beak. “Dear Fox, enjoy the dinner. Help yourself,” said the Crane. “It’s very delicious and I have nothing more to offer you.”

The Fox went around and around the jar and tried to eat the dinner, but its nose wouldn’t fit into the jar. The Crane offered more food and mentioned again that the meal was delicious. Soon the Crane ate the whole meal.

The Fox went home hungry and sad. They were not friends anymore.

The Tortoise and the Hare

A traditional English tale retold by KidsOut and CBeebies

Once upon a time, in a field not too far from you, there was an energetic and happy hare and a sleepy tortoise.

The happy hare was called Noel and the sleepy tortoise was called Archibald. Archibald the tortoise liked to sit and munch his dinner slowly, whilst Noel the hare would gobble up his dinner and run round and round Archibald until he was dizzy.

One day, they had an argument...

“I am the fastest animal in the whole wide world,” said Noel.
 “I’m faster than a cheeky cheetah, a kicking kangaroo and a racing rabbit,” he boasted.

“Oh do be quiet,” sighed Archibald. “You are so full of yourself! If you’re not careful you’ll come to a sticky end...”

“Where’s sticky end then,” asked Noel. “Is it far from here?”

Archibald rolled his eyes and carried on munching on some tasty lettuce leaves.

“Oh you two do stop arguing,” said a blackbird as he flew past.

“No, this is serious,” said Noel the hare. “I will prove to you all that I’m the fastest animal in the whole wide world“

“OK,” said Archibald the tortoise. “I’ll race you then!”

Noel the hare laughed his head off.

“Just you wait and see,” said Archibald. “I’ll get Wallace the wise old owl to organise a race for us...”

Wallace the wise old owl arranged the race for the next day. All the animals in the field put on their best clothes, groomed their fur, picked up a flag to wave and got ready to cheer the tortoise and the hare on.

“On your marks... Get set... Go!” Called Wallace... And the race was off!

Slowly, slowly Archibald the tortoise set off and quickly, quickly Noel the hare raced off and soon he was out of sight. In fact, he was so far ahead that, when he looked back, Archibald the tortoise was nowhere to be seen.

“Gosh,” Noel thought. “I’ve more or less won all ready! I think I’ll just have a little nap under this tree, it's such a hot day". Noel the hare was soon fast asleep.

Meanwhile, Archibald the tortoise ambled along slowly enjoying the sun on his shell and taking the odd nibble of grass from time to time. On and on and on and on and on and on he plodded. He plodded past the oak tree, he plodded past the bridge, he plodded past the cow shed, he even plodded past Noel the hare who was still snoring under the tree. He plodded on until he came to the finishing line where Wallace the wise old owl and all the other animals in the field were gathered. All the animals clustered around Archibald cheering and shouting:

“Well done! Well done! You're the winner!”

All the noise woke Noel the hare up with a start.

“Oh my! Oh my! What's going on? What's all that noise? Never mind. I'd better finish the race then I can go and have my dinner,” he thought.

his neck.

“This can't be right! He must have cheated,” cried Noel the hare. “Everyone knows I'm faster than him!”

“Archibald the tortoise didn't cheat,” said Wallace the wise old owl. “He has won fair and square. Slowly and surely, never giving up, Archibald passed the finishing line first. Sorry Noel old chap, but you've lost this race. Let that be a lesson to you – slow and steady wins the race!”

Noel the hare looked very unhappy and sulky. Archibald the tortoise felt sorry for him and tried to cheer him up...

“Cheer up Noel, it was only a race,” Archibald said. “I’m sure you’ll win the next one. And I’d rather we were still friends than win every race under the sun.”

And from that day on they became the best of friends and Noel the hare never boasted again.

Theme-8*Wolf in Sheep's Clothing

Ha ha ha, this is about you

Beware, beware, be skeptical
Of their smiles, their smiles of plated gold
Deceit so natural

But a wolf in sheep's clothing is more than a warning

Bla-bla-black sheep, have you any soul?
No sir, by the way, what the hell are morals
Jack, be nimble, Jack, be quick
Jill's a little whore and her alibis are dirty tricks

So could you
Tell me how you're sleeping easy
How you're only thinking of yourself
Show me how you justify
Telling all your lies like second nature
Listen, mark my words, one day
You will pay, you will pay
Karma's gonna come collect your debt

Aware, aware, you stalk your prey
With criminal mentality
You sink your teeth into the people you depend on Infecting everyone, you're quite the problem

Feeffifum, you...

THE WIND AND THE SUN

Once an argument took place between the wind and the sun as to who was stronger of the two. The wind claimed that he was stronger than the sun, whereas, the sun disagreed saying that he was more powerful than the wind.

Of course, this was a friendly argument, but there seemed to be no end if. After a marathon discussion, they both came to the conclusion that mere discussion won't serve any purpose. They, practically, have to do something to prove their point.

Just then, they saw traveler walking down the road. The sun got a bright idea and said to the wind, "Let's test our strength on that man, whosoever of us can force the winner. Have your chance first. "Saying this the sun hid himself behind clouds and got ready to see the fun.

The wind took the first turn. He blew an icy blast. But the harder he blew, the more closely did the traveler wrap his jacket around his body. The wind tried everything; clung to every ruse. He heaved his stormy from all sides, but all in vain. His confidence in his mightiness began shattering gradually. And ultimately, out of sheer disgust and embarrassment the wind gave up.

Now it was the sun's turn. He gently put aside the patch of cloud which served as a veil a moment ago. The anthelion around the cloud disappeared and now the sun was in the open field with all his might. The traveller first loosened his jacket and the finally, took it off. He began to perspire. He sat in the shade of a tree and fanned himself. This, the sun proved himself to be stronger than the wind.

Theme-10*The Wise Goat And The Wolf

Once upon a time, many, many wild Goats lived in a cave in the side of a hill. A Wolf lived with his mate not far from this cave. Like all Wolves they liked the taste of Goat-meat. So they caught the Goats, one after another, and ate them all but one who was wiser than all the others. Try as they might, the Wolves could not catch her.

One day the Wolf said to his mate: "My dear, let us play a trick on that wise Goat. I will lie down here pretending to be dead. You go alone to the cave where the Goat lives, and looking very sad, say to her: 'My dear, do you see my mate lying there dead? I am so sad; I have no friends. Will you be good to me? Will you come and help me bury the body of my mate?' The Goat will be sorry for you and I think she will come here with you. When she stands beside me I will spring upon her and bite her in the neck. Then she will fall over dead, and we shall have good meat to eat."

The Wolf then lay down, and his mate went to the Goat, saying what she had been told to say.

But the wise Goat said: "My dear, all my family and friends have been eaten by your mate I am afraid to go one step with you. I am far safer here than I would be there."

"Do not be afraid," said the Wolf. "What harm can a dead Wolf do to you?"

These and many more words the Wolf said to the Goat, so that at last the Goat said she would go with the Wolf.

But as they went up the hill side by side, the Goat said to herself: "Who knows what will happen? How do I know the Wolf is dead?" She said to the Wolf, "I think it will be better if you go on in front of me."

The Wolf thought he heard them coming. He was hungry and he raised up his head to see if he could see them. The Goat saw him raise his head, and she turned and ran back to her cave.

"Why did you raise your head when you were pretending to be dead?" the Wolf asked her mate. He had no good answer.

By and by the Wolves were both so very hungry that the Wolf asked his mate to try once more to catch the Goat.

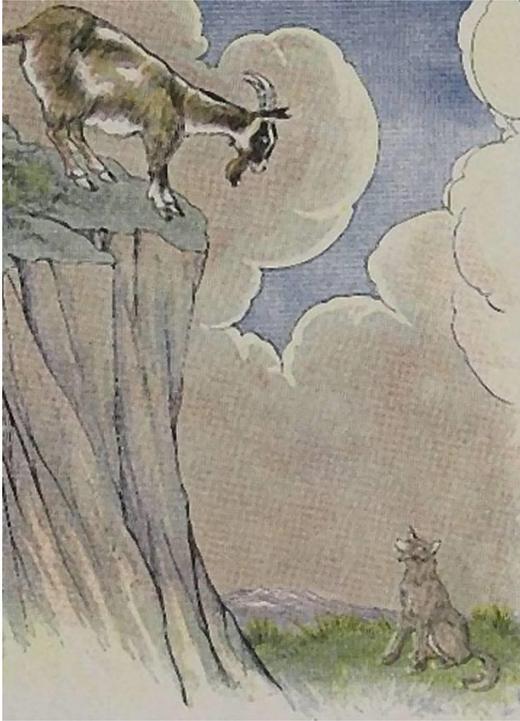

This time the Wolf went to the Goat and said: "My friend, your coming helped us, for as soon as you came, my mate felt better. He is now very much better. Come and talk to him. Let us be friends and have a good time together."

The wise Goat thought: "These wicked Wolves want to play another trick on me. But I have thought of a trick to play on them." So the Goat said: "I will go to see your mate, and I will take my friends with me. You go back and get ready for us. Let us all have a good time together."

Then the Wolf was afraid, and she asked: "Who are the friends who will come with you? Tell me their names."

The wise Goat said: "I will bring the two Hounds, Old Gray and Young Tan, and that fine big dog called Four-Eyes. And I will ask each of them to bring his mate."

The Wolf waited to hear no more. She turned, and away she ran back to her mate. The Goat never saw either of them again.

The Wolf And The Goat By Milo Winter

A hungry Wolf spied a Goat browsing at the top of a steep cliff where he could not possibly get at her.

"That is a very dangerous place for you," he called out, pretending to be very anxious about the Goat's safety. "What if you should fall! Please listen to me and come down! Here you can get all you want of the finest, tenderest grass in the country."

The Goat looked over the edge of the cliff.

"How very, very anxious you are about me," she said, "and how generous you are with your grass! But I know you! It's your own appetite you are thinking of, not mine!"

The Moral Of This Tale

"An invitation prompted by selfishness is not to be accepted"

Theme-11*Cat and Dog were Friends.Georgie Porgie*

Georgie Porgie was a cheeky little boy. He liked to tease people especially little girls. .

One afternoon, he went to the park near his house. He found a little girl and tried to kiss her. The girl cried and sobbed because she did not like Georgie.

Then, some boys came to the park and saw Georgie chasing after the girl. They shouted and laughed loudly at Georgie. Georgie stopped chasing the girl and ran away feeling embarrassed. Thereafter Georgie hesitated to play with his friends because he remembered his embarrassment that he faced in front of his friends. This incident prohibited him from chasing girls thereafter.

Moral of the story :

Being cheeky and naughty has its limits. Behave yourself so that you do not cause problems to others.

Theme-12*The Thirsty CrowOrigin And History*

The Crow and the Pitcher is an Aesop's fable, which tells you the story of the thirsty crow. It is a simple tale of using logic to achieve the said goal. The story has been mentioned in several poems by Greek poets, in fable collections, and other books. The simplicity of the story and the moral it gives kids is perhaps why it was into almost all the languages in the world.

So here is the story again, so that you can read it out to your kids.

The Thirsty Crow Story In English

It was a hot summer's day. A thirsty crow flew into a village in search of water. The crow flew over the houses, fields, and trees. But he didn't find any water. After a long time, he came across a farm. Under one of the trees on the farm was a pitcher of water.

Happy that he found some water finally, he swooped down to the tree and then down to the ground. He quickly moved towards the pitcher and looked inside. There was very little water in the pot. The crow put his beak inside the pitcher but could not reach the water. The water level was too low, and the narrow opening prevented his neck from going all the way down.

He tried to push the vessel down to let the water out, but it was too heavy. The crow was disappointed. He was really thirsty and needed a drink of water badly. He could have given up and flown to another farm, looking for water.

But he didn't. Instead, he looked around and thought, "What else can I do?" He saw that there were a lot of pebbles on the farm. And, he had an idea! He collected a pebble and put it into the pitcher. He collected another pebble and another and put them all in the pitcher. As he added more and more stones, the water level came up to the brim. The crow drank the water and flew back home happily!

What Is The Moral Of The Thirsty Crow Story?

Every fable has a moral. And the moral of the thirsty crow story comes in several interpretations.

In the Latin verse collection of fables, Avianus follows this story with this moral – "Thoughtfulness is superior to brutal force or strength".

In another edition of this story by Francis Barlow, the moral is – "Necessity is the mother of invention".

Modern 20th century writers chose a different moral – "Where there is a will, there is a way!"

So now you see why telling your kid the thirsty crow story is a good idea? Your kid will learn moral values and also the science of water displacement! That's right! The thirsty crow story for kids is perhaps one of the few parables that also teach principles of physics to kids!

Theme-13*The Lion and the mouse.

A long, long time ago a little mouse was playing and messing around. He was making a lot of noise and all of a sudden he woke up the lion, the king of the animals.

“How dare you wake me up?” the lion roared, "I'm going to eat you all up!" And with that he placed his big paw upon the mouse's tiny body, so that the poor frightened little mouse couldn't move. “Please, forgive me, oh, King of the animals! I didn't mean to wake you up. I was just playing! If you let me go now, maybe I can help you one day!” the mouse squeaked.

This made the lion roar with laughter. “You? Help me? Ha ha ha. You are so small, how could you help me?!” And with that he changed his mind, "Alright, I will let you go, because you would be such a tiny morsel anyway!”

A few months later the lion was prowling around, taking care of his majestic duties, when he got caught in a trap.

He struggled to get free, but the more he tried to free himself, the more he got tangled in the net.

Luckily, the same little mouse was passing by and saw what had happened. The king of the animals was in trouble!

Happy to finally be able to help the lion, the mouse rushed to his aid and started gnawing through the ropes.

“I didn’t believe you would be able to help me, but I was wrong,” said the lion, when he was set free by the little mouse. From that day on, the lion and the mouse became good friends.

Theme-16*My toys . Songs and poems.*SONGS AND RHYMES ABOUT TOYS AND TEDDIES

If you go down to the woods today
 You're sure of a big surprise.
 If you go down to the woods today
 You better go in disguise.
 For every bear that ever there was,
 Will gather there for certain, because
 Today's the day the Teddy Bears have their picnic.
 Picnic time for Teddy Bears -
 The little Teddy Bears are having a lovely time today!
 Watch them, catch them unawares,
 And see them picnic on their holiday.
 See them gaily gad about
 They love to play and shout.
 They never have any care;
 At six o'clock their Mummies and Daddies,
 Will take them home to bed,
 Because they're tired little Teddy Bears.

Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Turn around,
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Touch the ground.
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Dance on your toes,
 Teddy bear, teddy bear.
 Touch your nose.
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,

Stand on your head,
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Go to bed.
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Say goodnight,
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Turn out the light.
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Wake up now,
 Teddy bear, teddy bear,
 Take a bow.

The bear went over the mountain,
 The bear went over the mountain,
 The bear went over the mountain,
 To see what he could see
 To see what he could see,
 To see what he could see
 The other side of the mountain,
 The other side of the mountain,
 The other side of the mountain,
 Was all that he could see
 Was all that he could see,
 Was all that he could see,
 The other side of the mountain,
 Was all that he could see!

Deep in the hundred acre wood
 Where Christopher Robin plays,
 You'll find the enchanted neighborhood

Of Christopher's childhood days.
 A donkey named Eeyore is his friend
 And Kanga and little Roo,
 There's Rabbit and Piglet and then there's Owl,
 but most of all Winnie the Pooh.
 Winnie the Pooh,
 Winnie the Pooh,
 Tubby little cubby all stuffed with fluff
 He's Winnie the Pooh,
 Winnie the Pooh,
 Willy nilly silly old bear (Disney)

Going on a bear hunt
 Gonna catch a big one
 I'm not afraid (shake head no)
 What's that up ahead (shade eyes with hand, look around)
 A field:
 Can't go around it,
 Can't go under it,
 Can't go over it
 Got to go through it (rub hands together)
 A lake (swimming motion)
 A mud puddle (cup hands together, suction sound)
 A tree (climbing motion)
 A cave (reaching out in the dark)
 What's this? I feel something...
 It has a nose
 eyes ears
 fur
 It's a bear!

RUN!!!

Run away through actions backward
Out of the cave; a tree; a mud puddle; a lake; a field

Whew!

We're home!

I'm not afraid!

Sung to: "You Are My Sunshine"

You are my teddy bear

My only teddy bear,

You make me smi-le,

You are my friend,

You'll never kno-w,

How much I like you -

I'm so glad you're my

Teddy Bear today.

(Chant rhythmically)

A-B- CDE

I lost my teddy, poor me.

F-G- HIJ

Maybe someone put him away.

K-L- MNO

I wonder how far my teddy could go.

P-Q- RST

Isn't there someone who'll help me?

U-V- WXY

I think I'll sit right here and cry!

Z-Z- ZZZ

Oh, I found him, I'm happy!

I'm a floppy, floppy rag doll
 (arms fall limp)
 Dropping in my chair.
 My head just rolls
 (turn head from side to side)
 From side to side
 My arms fall through the air
 (drop arms limply)

I had a little balloon
 (make circle with hands)
 That I hugged tight to me
 (hug self tight)
 There was a great big BANG!
 (clap hands loudly)
 No more balloon for me!
 But if I had this many more
 (hold up five fingers)
 I wouldn't hold them tight
 (shake head)
 I'd just hold the strings
 And fly them like a kite.

Here is a big round bouncy ball
 I bounce it 1,2,3.
 Here is a ball for throwing.
 I can catch it, watch and see.
 Here is a ball for rolling.
 Please roll it back to me.
 Bouncing, throwing, rolling balls -
 Let's count them: 1,2,3.

A little ball (clasp hands)
 A bigger ball (hands apart)
 A great big ball I see (big arc)
 Now let's count the balls
 ONE
 TWO THREE

There once was a princess,
 Long ago, long ago,
 There once was a princess,
 Long, long ago.
 She lived up in a big tower, a big tower, a big tower,
 She lived up in a big tower,
 Long, long ago.

Additional Verses:

One day a fairy waved her wand,
 The princess slept for one hundred years,
 A prince came galloping by,
 He gave the princess a magic kiss,
 All are happy now

Puppet clown, puppet clown
 Moving up and down and around,
 Puppet clown, puppet clown,
 You do make such silly sounds,
 Puppet clown, puppet clown,
 How you shake and dance and wiggle!

Puppet clown, puppet clown
How you make me laugh and giggle!

“BIG TRAIN”

*Choo, choo, the big train is coming down the track.
Choo, choo, the big train is coming down the track
Stop, look and listen. Stop look and listen.
Choo, choo, the big train is coming down the track.*

Theme-17

Row, row, row your boat,
Gently down the stream,
Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily,
Life is but a dream.

1. Let’s sing class. “Big train”

*Choo, choo, the big train is coming down the track.
Choo, choo, the big train is coming down the track
